

Student Teaching

Orchard Family Practice is a teaching Practice. There may be times when the clinician that you are seeing has a student/trainee along with them observing the consultation. If you are uncomfortable with them being there the clinician will ask them to leave.

There may be times when there will be a need to video certain consultations. This of course will only be done with your consent.